

Conversation and quiz

Reminiscence Radio Show

Programme Eight
1930s-1960s

Conversation and quiz

This quiz is based on the stars featured in the Reminiscence Radio Show, events and life around the periods that the programme covers.

The quiz can spark conversation, helping family and carers understand what life was like 'back in the day.' The questions range in difficulty.

These pages can be printed off or shown on a device as PDFs.

The Great Depression

The Great Depression started with a stock market crash. What is the name of the street that is famous as being the centre of the US financial district?

The street is called Wall Street.

Jimmy Durante

What part of his body was Jimmy most famous for and what did he call it?

He was famous for his nose, that he called his schnozzola.

Snow White

Snow White was the first full colour feature length cartoon. Can you name the man who owned famous film company who made it?

Snow White was a Walt Disney film.

Casablanca

Who played Rick Blaine and Ilsa Lund in the WWII romantic film Casablanca.

Humphrey Bogart as Rick Blaine and Ingrid Bergman as Ilsa Lund.

Marlena Dietrich

What nationality was Marlena Dietrich and can you name her “signature” song from the film The Blue Angel?

She was German, but also held American citizenship.
The song was Falling in Love Again.

South Pacific

The music and songs for South Pacific were written by which famous musical partnership?

Rodgers and Hammerstein

Johnny Cash

What sort of music is Johnny Cash most famous for?

Johnny Cash is most famous for being a Country and Western singers, but he is also consider to be Rock and Roll and Gospel star.

Little Richard

Little Richard was a famous Rock and Roll singer.

His first big song was called Tutti *what?

The song Tutti Frutti was Little Richard's first big hit.

Radio Caroline

Radio Caroline was a pirate radio station that broadcast from a ship. Can you name any other pirate stations?

There were many: Radio London, Radio City, Radio Sutch, 390, Britain Radio, Radio England, Radio Essex, King Radio, Radio Invicta, Radio 355, Radio 270.

Laser 558 was on air in the 1980s Radio Luxembourg, wasn't a pirate station but wasn't based in the UK and inspired the pirates.

Ken Dodd

Ken Dodd used to have a group of little people who would perform with him.

What were they called?

They were called the Diddy Men.

