

Conversation and quiz

Reminiscence Radio Show

Programme One
1930s-1950s

Conversation and quiz

This quiz is based on the stars featured in the Reminiscence Radio Show, events and life around the periods that the programme covers.

The quiz can spark conversation, helping family and carers understand what life was like 'back in the day.' The questions range in difficulty.

These pages can be printed off or shown on a device as PDFs.

Cab Calloway

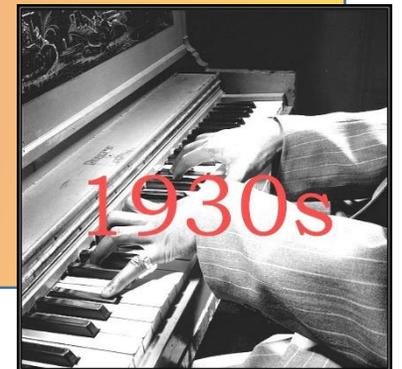

Cab Calloway was a jazz musician.

What sort of suit did jazz musicians wear in the 1930s and 1940s?

A - Toot Suit, B - Zoot Suit, or C - Moot Suit

The answer was B - Zoot suit.

A Zoot suit was a high-waisted, wide-legged, tight-cuffed suit with, pegged trousers and a long coat with wide lapels and wide, padded shoulders. The clothes became especially popular among Latino and African American communities.

Judy Garland

Judy Garland starred in the Wizard of Oz as Dorothy singing Over the Rainbow.

Can you name her dog?

Dorothy's dog was called Toto.

Fred Astaire

Fred Astaire sang Cheek to Cheek.

Can you name the musical film this is from and who partnered Fred?

The film was Top Hat, starring Ginger Rogers.

Doris Day

Can you name the band who supported Doris at the start of her career with the song Sentimental Journey?

They were called Les Brown and his Band of Renown.

Mills Brothers

How many Mills Brothers were there?

There were four Mills Brothers.

Gene Kelly

Who walked up and watched Gene Kelly jumping in puddles as Gene danced during the film Singing in the Rain?

It was a Policeman.

Connie Francis

Connie Francis' most famous song was about Lipstick on your..... what?

The song was Lipstick on your collar

Elvis Presley

In which film did Elvis sing Blue Suede Shoes?

Elvis sang Blue Suede Shoes in the film, G I Blues.

