

Conversation and quiz

Reminiscence Radio Show

Programme Six 1930s-1960s

Conversation and quiz

This quiz is based on the stars featured in the Reminiscence Radio Show, events and life around the periods that the programme covers.

The quiz can spark conversation, helping family and carers understand what life was like 'back in the day.' The questions range in difficulty.

These pages can be printed off or shown on a device as PDFs.

Arthur Askey

Arthur Askey could be heard on the BBC wartime radio programme Bandwagon. Another famous radio programme was ITMA (pronounced 'Itmarr')

What does ITMA (Itmarr) stand for?

ITMA stands for It's That Man Again.

The man was Hitler and the programme's name referred to how often the man kept appearing in the newspapers during the start of World War Two.

Glen Miller

Glenn Miller was famous as a band leader.
What instrument did he sometimes play?

He played the trombone, but he didn't think he was very good!

Vera Lynn

Vera Lynn was known as the Forces.....what?

She was known as The Forces Sweetheart, and was adored by the soldiers, sailors and airmen of World War Two.

Fats Waller

What did Fats Waller often wear on his head?

Fats Waller wore his famous bowler hat!

Food!

In the 1950's people were told to 'Go to work on an '..... what?

In the 1950's people were told to 'Go to work on an egg'

Harry Belafonte

Harry Belafonte is famous for singing 'Calypso' songs.
Where does this music come from?

Calypso music originated in the islands of the Caribbean, it first started in Trinidad and Tobago.

Shirley Bassey

Shirley Bassey recorded a number of theme songs for the James Bond films.

Can you name any of the films?

Goldfinger (1964), Diamonds Are Forever (1971), and Moonraker (1979)

Tom Jones

Tom Jones is one of the best known singers from Wales.

Can you complete the names of these Tom Jones songs?

Why, why, why
What's new
Its not
The green, green grass of

Delilah
Pussycat?
Unusual
Home

Max Bygraves

Max Bygraves had a famous catch phrase. He used to say that he 'wanted to tell you a'..... what?

Max Bygraves used to say: "I wanna tell you a story."

Max was an all-round entertainer. In the 1970s Max was mostly famous for being a TV presenter.

Bee Gees

The Bee Gees are three brothers.

What is their surname and what are their first names?

The Bee Gee are the brothers Gibb.
Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb.

